

U. S. COURT ORDERS $4,000,000 SEIZURE

Alien Property Custodian
Gets Personality of Munich
Reinsurance Company.

TRUSTEES HAD PROPERTY

It Was Held Under Deed as Security for American Policy Holders.

Securities worth $4,000,000 were ordered seized by Judge John C. Knox in the Federal District Court yesterday in the course of a proceeding begun by Francis P. Garvan, Alien Property Custodian. The securities, which are first mortgage bonds and preferred stocks of miscellaneous issues, will be held pending the adjudication of a claim of the Alien Property Custodian to possession of the securities as enemy property.

The securities were owned by the Munich Reinsurance Company of Munich, Germany. They were deposited in the vaults of Laidenburg, Thalmann & Co. of 25 Broad street and the Park National Bank in the name of J. Marshall Marshall, Walter T. Rosen and Rudolf Metz as trustees under a deed of trust as security for American policy holders.

It is contended by the Government that ultimate ownership of the securities under the deed is vested in the German company, and that title does not pass where such securities are deposited to protect policy holders in compliance with American laws. Mr. Garvan demanded possession of the securities on March 7 and 8 and the trustees refused to hand them over, acting on the advice of counsel. The securities were seized by deputy marshals under a provision of the trading with the enemy law and will be held pending a hearing on March 24.

BUYS 85,000 HELMETS FOR $1.

Publicity Head to Use German
Headgear for Victory Loan Prices.

Frank R. Wilson, director of publicity for the Liberty Loan, has purchased from the War Department for $1 the 85,000 German helmets captured by American soldiers which Gen. Pershing recently shipped to the United States. The helmets are now in a storage warehouse at the Erie Basin, and are to be shipped to-morrow to the district organizations of the Liberty Loan throughout the United States, which will use them as prizes in the forthcoming loan campaign.

The helmets were shipped by Gen. Pershing to be used as prizes, but lawyers in the War Department declared it would be illegal for the Government to give away captured war material. For a time it seemed as though nothing could be done with the helmets except put them in museums, and then Mr. Wilson hit upon the scheme of buying them and giving them away himself. That makes it all legal.

WOMEN TO SPEAK FOR LOAN.

Mrs. Vincent Astor and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., "Enlist."

Mrs. Vincent Astor and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr. will be two of the principal speakers of the Division of Women Speakers during the Victory Liberty Loan campaign. Announcement to this effect was made yesterday at headquarters of the Liberty Loan Committee, 126 Broadway.

Other speakers will be Mrs. Douglas Robinson, sister of the late Col. Roosevelt; Miss Ruth Morgan, Mrs. Nina Larre Duryea, Miss Elizabeth Marbury, Miss Elsie De Wolfe, Miss Mary Garrett Hay, and Miss Julia K. Jaffrey.

BIG BEAUTY CONTEST TO-NIGHT

Fairest of Six Belles to Be Picked
by Public Vote.

What the management asserts will be the "first fair and above board beauty contest in recent years" will be decided at the annual ball of the Moulin Rouge in the Amsterdam Opera House to-night. The public, itself, will select the winner and the recorder of votes. It is announced, will "merely act as a register of the public's sentiment."

It is explained that, as there are several distinct types of beauty, the committee in charge, Galliard T. Boag, chairman, has decided to have six young women in the contest. Mr. Boag said yesterday that, in order to insure absolute fairness, the teller of votes had been placed under a $10,000 bond. A prize of $10,000 will be given to the combined Moulin Rouge, Palais Royal, Bal Tabarin, Montmartre and Cafe de Paris cabaret staffs. Three orchestras will furnish music.

ITALIANS APPEAL FOR WILSON'S AID

Commission From Redeemed
Lands Greeted at Big Meeting Here.

Thrilling enthusiasm greeted the public appearance last night of members of the Commission from the Redeemed Lands, Trieste, Fiume and Dalmatia, when the visitors spoke at the mass meeting of the Order of the Sons of Italy together with the Federation of Italian Intellectuals in the United States. The meeting was held before an overflow audience in the auditorium of the United Engineering Societies at 25 West Thirty-ninth street.

Resolutions were adopted calling upon President Wilson to send the Italian Commission to use his office in seeing to it that Italy's claims on the Adriatic receive due consideration at the Versailles conference. Most of the addresses were delivered in Italian. Those speaking were members of the commission, which arrived before last in New York, and which is composed of the Hon. Dr. Roberto Ghiglianovich, Deputy of Zaru and ex-president of the Italian Political Association of America; the Hon. Dr. Gino Antoni, Delegate to the National Council and Vice-Mayor of Fiume; the Hon. Dr. Giorgio Botasso, Deputy of Trieste to the Parliament of Vienna; and Prof. G. Lorenzoni, Delegate from Trento.

An address was also made by Judge J. French of New York. The meeting was presided over by Stefano Micie, Dr. Roberto Ghiglianovich, a Dalmatian statesman, said: "Help us, brothers! Italian brothers do not renounce us do not let the treachery of our betrayers or the intrigues of diplomacy put the yoke of another foreign oppressor around our necks. We want and deserve to be part of the new Italy. Like our brothers of the Trentino, of the Venezia Giulia, like our brothers of Fiume, we want all that is to be redeemed."
